The Good Ones Clothing Supports Deputy Adam Meeks Fundraiser

Fort Wayne, Indiana — The Good Ones Clothing (TGO) will be supporting Deputy Adam Meeks and his family at a benefit on their behalf on Sunday, October 6th from 1:00 p.m. to 6:00 p.m.

On August 24, 2013 Deputy Meeks sustained injuries that nearly took his life. He was responding to a 911 call reporting a man with a gun threatening to shoot people at a large gathering.

The benefit and live auction for Deputy Meeks and his family will be held at the Fremont Moose Lodge located at 2051 W. Toledo Street, Fremont, Indiana. There will be beef & noodle dinner with mashed potatoes, vegetable, and dinner roll for $6.00.

Adam and his three sons will be wearing The Good Ones clothing, which will also be available in a silent auction. This auction will begin at 3:00 p.m.

The benefit is open to the public and Moose members and will raise money to help the Meeks family.

About The Good Ones Clothing

In partnership with long-time client Matilda Jane Clothing, Fort Wayne-based design & marketing boutique One Lucky Guitar launched The Good Ones Clothing Company as a standalone business in Spring 2012. Inspired by the imagination and joy of boyhood, the company sells unique and upscale clothing for kids from newborn to 12 years old, as well as teens and adults. Many of the company's products feature The Final Hurrahs, a fictional, rambunctious band the company created to inspire and entertain kids, and their parents.
