Ron Howard Returns to Mad Ants

FORT WAYNE, IN (November 1, 2013) – The Fort Wayne Mad Ants presented by Lutheran Health Network announced today that they have acquired their all-time leading scorer, Ron Howard, for the 2013-14 season.

Howard averaged 19.1 points, 4.1 rebounds and 4.7 assists per game over 35 games last season. He recorded a season high 30 points against the Maine Red Claws on 12/21/12. Nicknamed “Mr. Mad Ant,” Howard has played for the Mad Ants since their 2007-08 inaugural season. He has played in 198 games as a Mad Ant, averaging 16.8 points, 3.9 rebounds and 2.8 assists per game over six seasons.

Ron and his wife, Reesha, reside in Fort Wayne with their two daughters, Chloe and Peyton. They run Game Day Sports Camp, a summer camp for local children grades K-8.

The Mad Ants will play their home opener on Friday, November 29 at 7:30pm against the Maine Red Claws at the Memorial Coliseum. Call the Mad Ants office at 260-469-4667 to get your season tickets which start at just $99!

About the NBA Development League:

The NBA Development League is the NBA's official minor league, preparing players, coaches, officials, trainers, and front-office staff for the NBA while acting as the league's research and development laboratory. Featuring 17 teams, including 14 with direct affiliations to NBA franchises, the league offers professional basketball at an affordable price in a fun, family-friendly atmosphere. Twenty-four percent of players in the NBA at the start of the 2013-14 season boasted NBA D-League experience. In fostering the league's connection to the community, its teams, players and staff promote health and wellness, support local needs and interests, and assist in educational development through NBA D-League Cares programs.
